about residential services

- UCP of Greater Cleveland is dedicated to ensuring that individuals with disabilities are able to live the most productive and meaningful life possible within the least restrictive environment
- Residential services programming includes independent living services and two group homes (Edendale House and Memphis House) for individuals 18 years of age and older
- Programs provide personal care and supports necessary to enable individuals to live as independently as possible within the community
- The agency is a preferred provider of residential services and has been recognized for significant achievement by the Cuyahoga County Board of Developmental Disabilities

qualified staff

- A team of trained direct support professionals provides assistance and supervision
- A nurse is on call 24 hours a day and provides assessment and coordination of quality medical care
- A program manager performs functional needs assessments, supervises and trains staff, coordinates support services and ensures proper implementation of individual service plans for each client
- Physicians, psychologists, physical, occupational and speech/language therapists and dieticians perform evaluations on an as-needed basis

Clients complete daily tasks both independently and with support as needed independent living program

- UCP of Greater Cleveland's Independent Living Program offers supported living services and health care support for adults with developmental disabilities
- Based on the belief that adults with disabilities should have the ability to reside in the least restrictive setting possible, the program offers varying levels of assistance to individuals residing in a community-based apartment or house of their choosing
- Individuals participating in UCP's Residential Services Program receive assistance in locating housing easily accessible to banks, grocery stores, places of worship, public transportation and other necessary services
- Services are provided as needed and include varying levels of support, from guidance a few hours each week to 24-hour personal care

UCP of Greater Cleveland encourages individuals to be as independent as possible while tailoring services based upon individual need and preference

Edendale House and Memphis House

- UCP of Greater Cleveland operates two Intermediate Care Facility Group Homes, Edendale House and Memphis House, providing 24-hour care to adults with disabilities
- Each home accommodates up to eight adults
- Edendale House and Memphis House specialize in serving individuals with significant medical challenges
- Personal care, health care, daily supports and life skills training are provided as needed
- Residents are encouraged to participate in outside activities including work, school, recreation, social activities and volunteerism to enhance self-reliance and decision-making capabilities
- Edendale House and Memphis House help individuals live as independently as possible while incorporating necessary supports

Clients are encouraged to participate in community and recreational activities on a regular basis

Individuals are encouraged to personalize their space and make it their own

The Independent Living Program is certified as a Supportive Living Provider by the Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities and is certified by the Ohio Department of Health
